

Youth dance classes are a part of a continuous year-round program with open registration occurring in August of each year. Participants may advance to Teacher Discretion classes and will receive priority registration for the next session of the class.

- Priority Registration classes may require automatic deferred payment deductions from a credit card or debit card for each ongoing session in order to remain priority status.
- Any openings after the priority registration period is completed will be available first for waitlist, and then for open registration (See p. 46 for waitlist policies).

The City of Carlsbad Parks and Recreation department does not include recitals, exhibitions, or competitions as part of its programming or fees. These events, which may be offered by individual instructors, are considered optional and may include additional fees/costs.
